Quick summary:

Co-op community Champion Zoe (based at the large Ashby and Moira store) approached the WASPs to offer any assistance. CB discussed the idea of an Ashby Community cookbook. Children and staff submit recipe ideas, plus ask local stores/shops if they'd like to submit a recipe too- free advertising for them in return for advertising the cookbook on their social media pages and in their shops.

- Central email account
- Need company to collate and print the book – Zoe indicated may have some sponsor ideas lined up
- Letters out to parents – check GDPR – use Weduc?
- Letters to Ashby vendors
- Advertisements – Co-op social media pages, WASPs, WhatsApp groups, posters shop windows etc
- Get children to design the front cover – win a free copy and a Fairtrade Co-op hamper
- Discuss price next meeting after we know printing costs
- Poll on FB to gauge interest in how many people would buy the book

Claire - mtg with Zoe Fri, set up cookbook email account, draft parent letter, check printers, posters, circulation of letter to shops etc

Nicola - check GDPR with contacts. Raffle donations on hold for now? Discuss next mtg regarding latest lockdown info

Jo - Check with office about adding GDPR photo & name tick box on Weduc and the ability to print a list off later. Ask Mr Smedley about quotes for storage sheds for playtime equipment

Rachel - GDPR check

AOB – Items to discuss at the next meeting subject to COVID guidelines are teddies, donut sale, charity bag drop, school lottery, future fairs, events and year 6 leavers party
